

Avocats ■ Rechtsanwälte

Thomas Jahn

Counsel

Avocat au Barreau de Paris, Rechtsanwalt, Attorney-at-Law (New York)

Thomas Jahn is admitted to the practice of law in Paris, Hamburg and New York. He assists foreign, particularly German and Anglo-Saxon, companies with their investments in France, as well as French companies with their cross-border projects.

Activity:

Thomas Jahn assists his clients with the purchase or sale of French and German companies – from the planning stages through due diligence audits to execution of the transaction itself. At the same time, he advises and assists with the establishment of French companies and the restructuring of corporate groups. He also advises his clients in insolvency proceedings and in the design and implementation of distribution structures; he represents them before national and international competition authorities and in international arbitration.

His areas of expertise are:

International business law, mergers & acquisitions, corporate law, cross-border restructuring, due diligence audits, commercial law, bankruptcy law, antitrust law, arbitration, distribution law.

Biography:

- Study of law in Heidelberg, Munich, Freiburg/i.B. and New York (LL.M.)
- Since 1978, attorney with the firms of Curtis Mallet Prevost Colt & Mosle (Paris, New York) SG Archibald, Andersen Legal, EY Law and BMH Avocats (all Paris)
- With GGV since 2011

Languages:

French, German and English

Motto:

" Law is only one aspect of things "

Away from the office:

" My passions include art – whether as a visitor at exhibitions or as a collector. I enjoy getting to know new cultures in travels spanning all the continents. Modern theatre and classical music, rock and world music are essential sources of relaxation for me. I also enjoy playing tennis in my spare time and go skiing in the winter. "

Contact

223, rue Saint-Honoré

75001 Paris

France

Tél. +33 1 44 51 05 70

jahn@gg-v.net

www.gg-v.fr